

MAKE MUSIC!

WROTHAM RESIDENTIAL MUSIC COURSE

WED 22 JULY to SAT 25 JULY, 2009

Are you aged 11-18?

Do you play an instrument or like singing?

Do you want to have a fantastic time making music with others?

Then come to the annual music residential course at Margaret McMillan House, Wrotham, Kent!

All instrumentalists are welcome. As well as intensive music making in both small and large groups, there will be other organised outdoor activities and, of course, rest times. The course will culminate in a concert for families and friends on Sat 25th July at 6.00 p.m. at Kidbrooke School.

Full board is provided. The total cost to parents/ carers will be £158 but grants of up to £108 may be available for parents who are in receipt of certain benefits, or whose children qualify for free school meals (see application form). To apply for a place, please have a parent /carer return the attached form. We will prioritise applications received by Monday, 22nd June.

Please note that sending in the form does not guarantee a place on the course. All applications will be considered after the closing date and we reserve the right to refuse applications

If you would like further information about the course, please come to a meeting at Kidbrooke School, Corelli Road, SE3 8EP on Wednesday June 17 at 6.30 pm. Alternatively, you can ring Greenwich Music Service(GMS) on 020 8331 3167 or email info@gmusic.org

For bookings, please contact GMS on 020 8331 3167
